FREE Help me prepare for a feedback conversation at work. 🧠 1 copy the script below > 2 pasted into any AI > 3 prep for that tough talk First ask: “Are you giving feedback or asking for feedback?” If giving feedback, ask: 1. “What’s the main point you need to communicate?” 2. “What’s one clear example?” 3. “What positive intention do you want to show?” 4. “Do you want a short script?” If asking for feedback, ask: 1. “What area do you want feedback on?” 2. “What recent project or situation should we reference?” 3. “What kind of feedback would help most?” 4. “Do you want a short message to request it?”

Professional Mediations, LLC #emotionalphysics #buddy_system #copypasteclick I founded Professional Mediations, LLC with a simple conviction: people deserve relief from the pressure that overwhelms their lives, relationships, and institutions. This work is not a business plan. 🖐️ It began as a responsibility — a recognition that human systems everywhere were straining under emotional load, and that clarity, stability, and humane navigation were becoming scarce resources. Across years of conflict navigation, service, and lived pressure in families, workplaces, and institutions, I began to see patterns that repeated themselves with remarkable consistency. Not psychological patterns. Not diagnostic categories. But structural patterns — the ways pressure moves, the ways groups react, the ways trust erodes, the ways communication breaks, and the ways people lose their footing under strain. Professional Mediations was created to meet that reality with steadiness, humility, and service. Our work is grounded in three commitments: Reduce pressure — never add to it. Restore flow — never force movement. Support people with clarity — never judgment. 🌐 The Galileo Operating System grew from this commitment — a framework designed to help people understand the forces shaping their interactions and to give them tools that make life more navigable. I do not claim to have all the answers. I do not claim to heal wounds or solve the human condition. But I do claim responsibility for stewarding a system that reduces suffering, restores stability, and gives people room to breathe. Professional Mediations, LLC will always remain the home of this work — a grounded, human-scale container that protects its mission, its integrity, and the people it serves. — Christian Founder, Professional Mediations, LLC copy/click/paste - Trust_Buddy 😊 - let's try to solve the problem you're facing in a constructive way. Help me figure out the action that would most improve trust in a situation. Start by asking: "What's the situation or problem you're having?" Then ask: "What part of this feels uncertain, unclear, or unpredictable?" Then ask: "What would make this feel more stable, predictable, or safe for you or the other person?" Then help me identify: - one small action, - that lowers pressure, - increases clarity, - and makes the future more predictable. जब हम किसी काम की बातचीत या फीडबैक की तैयारी करें, तो माहौल को हल्का, सम्मानजनक और सहयोगी रखें। शुरू करें: “क्या हम कुछ मिनट बात कर सकते हैं? मैं आपकी राय जानना चाहता/चाहती हूँ।” अगर आप फीडबैक दे रहे हैं, तो पूछें: 1. “मैं जिस बात पर चर्चा करना चाहता/चाहती हूँ, उसका मुख्य बिंदु क्या है?” 2. “क्या कोई उदाहरण है जिसे मैं सम्मानपूर्वक साझा कर सकता/सकती हूँ?” 3. “मैं यह दिखाना चाहता/चाहती हूँ कि मेरा उद्देश्य सहयोग और सुधार है।” 4. “क्या आप चाहेंगे कि मैं एक छोटा, विनम्र संदेश तैयार कर दूँ?” अगर आप फीडबैक माँग रहे हैं, तो पूछें: 1. “किस क्षेत्र में आपकी राय मेरे लिए सबसे उपयोगी होगी?” 2. “क्या हम किसी हाल की स्थिति या प्रोजेक्ट को आधार बना सकते हैं?” 3. “आप किस तरह का फीडबैक देना सबसे सहज महसूस करेंगे?” 4. “क्या आप चाहेंगे कि मैं एक छोटा, विनम्र अनुरोध संदेश तैयार कर दूँ?”

当我们开始新的对话时，请用一种温和、礼貌的方式向我问好。你可以说：“你好，我是伽利略。可以告诉我你的名字吗？”在我告诉你名字之后，请回应：“很高兴认识你。我们可以慢慢来——今天你想先从哪一部分开始？”当我表达我的需求时，请再问：“我明白了。那在这件事情的背后，你觉得真正重要、值得我们一起看看的是哪一层呢？”如果我停顿、犹豫或表达得不太清楚，请温柔地引导：“没关系，我们可以一步一步来。你愿意先说说你现在最在意的部分吗？”整个过程中，请保持语气平稳、尊重、不急不躁，不要给我压力，也不要让我在公开场合暴露太多。

Every Fourth Turning feels like bad weather—storms of outrage, droughts of trust. Mediation begins with reading that weather: noticing tone before content, heat before harm. Conflict Literacy is emotional meteorology for mediators—how to sense the climate, not just the case. ➡ Up next: how irony, fear, fatigue, and hope create the emotional fronts we mediate every day. #ConflictLiteracy #Mediation #Leadership #FourthTurning

 Help me prepare for a feedback conversation at work.  1 copy the script below > 2 pasted into any AI > 3 prep for that tough talk First ask: “Are you giving feedback or asking for feedback?” If giving feedback, ask: 1. “What’s the main point you need to communicate?” 2. “What’s one clear example?” 3. “What positive intention do you want to show?” 4. “Do you want a short script?” If asking for feedback, ask: 1. “What area do you want feedback on?” 2. “What recent project or situation should we reference?” 3. “What kind of feedback would help most?” 4. “Do you want a short message to request it?”

 Help me prepare for a feedback conversation at work.

 1 copy the script below > 2 pasted into any AI > 3 prep for that tough talk

First ask:

“Are you giving feedback or asking for feedback?”

If giving feedback, ask:

- 1. "What's the main point you need to communicate?"
- 2. "What's one clear example?"
- 3. "What positive intention do you want to show?"
- 4. "Do you want a short script?"

If asking for feedback, ask:

- 1. "What area do you want feedback on?"
- 2. "What recent project or situation should we reference?"
- 3. "What kind of feedback would help most?"
- 4. "Do you want a short message to request it?"
