4.0 Implementation Plan

Our phased implementation plan ensures that each training cycle is carefully co-designed with BCPS, delivered through interactive and wellness-integrated sessions, and followed by structured reviews that drive continuous improvement and measurable outcomes.

Phase 1 – Initial Rollout: Building the Foundation

- Planning Session: Prior to delivery, facilitators meet with BCPS leadership to identify pressing challenges (e.g., staff conduct, leadership accountability, equity priorities) and tailor scenarios to district needs.
- Delivery: A one-day intensive workshop (6 hours) introduces mediation frameworks, accountability lessons, and trauma-sensitive wellness practices. Participants receive Army Values cards, facilitator scripts, and reflection guides to anchor respectful engagement.
- Review Session: Immediately after, BCPS staff and facilitators conduct a structured debrief to evaluate participant engagement, gather feedback, and identify adjustments for reinforcement sessions.
- Outcome: Establishes a shared foundation for respectful dialogue, principled conflict resolution, and resilience practices across the district.

Phase 2 – Reinforcement: Deepening Skills and Habits

- Planning Session: Before each workshop, facilitators review feedback from Phase 1 and adjust content to address emerging leadership concerns or conduct issues.
- Delivery: Three half-day workshops (3 hours each) delivered over the semester. These sessions focus on scenario-based role plays, tactical empathy exercises (mirroring, labeling, calibrated questions), and stress management practices.

- Review Session: Each workshop concludes with reflection guides, participant surveys, and a joint review with BCPS leadership to assess effectiveness and refine upcoming sessions.
- Outcome: Builds durable habits of accountability, empathy, and resilience, ensuring lessons are reinforced and applied in daily practice.

Phase 3 – Ongoing Reflection: Sustaining Growth

- Planning Session: Monthly check-ins with BCPS leadership to select case studies and focus areas based on current employment concerns (attendance, bullying, grievance flow, disruptive behavior).
- Delivery: Monthly roundtables (90 minutes each) facilitated by Professional Mediations LLC and Yoga Mouth Collective. Sessions integrate case study packets, equity checklists, and grievance flowcharts, while embedding mindfulness resets to maintain constructive engagement.
- Review Session: Participant feedback and facilitator observations are documented and analyzed to inform future roundtable topics and refine training content.
- Outcome: Provides continuous coaching and peer learning, mirrors PLCs, and ensures professional standards are reinforced throughout the school year.

Phase 4 – Inspirational Engagements: Reinforcing Mission and Culture

- Planning Session: Prior to each event, facilitators coordinate with BCPS to align keynote themes with district priorities and professional development calendar.
- Delivery: Two annual speaking engagements (keynote + panel) featuring Christian Piatt (Professional Mediations LLC) and Kristi (Yoga Mouth Collective). These events highlight diverse perspectives and reinforce BCPS's mission to Engage. Empower. Excel.
- Review Session: Post-event evaluation with BCPS staff measures inspiration, relevance, and alignment with leadership development goals.
- Outcome: Inspires staff, reinforces cultural values, and strengthens district-wide commitment to equity, accountability, and resilience.

5.0 Alignment with BCPS Leadership Development Framework

5.1 Systemic Improvement

We will strengthen staff relationships and instructional climate by embedding mediation frameworks into daily leadership practices. We will provide conflict resolution tools and Army Values (LDRSHIP) as a shared ethical foundation for respectful engagement. This alignment reduces escalation to grievances or litigation, preserves trust, and builds a healthier school climate.

5.2 High-Quality Practices

We will equip staff with evidence-based strategies for managing high-stakes dialogue through accountability lessons and communication frameworks. We will provide training in Difficult Conversations, Crucial Conversations, and tactical empathy negotiation exercises. This ensures leaders apply proven methods that reinforce professional standards and drive consistent, equitable outcomes.

5.3 Professional Development & Coaching

We will deliver ongoing coaching and reflection opportunities through monthly roundtables that mirror Professional Learning Communities (PLCs). We will provide facilitator scripts, scenario handouts, and reflection guides to ensure consistent application of training content. This structure sustains learning beyond initial workshops, reinforces accountability, and fosters peer-to-peer growth.

5.4 Pipeline Development & Retention

We will embed resilience and wellness practices into leadership training to reduce burnout and strengthen staff retention. We will provide trauma-sensitive stress management techniques, mindfulness exercises, and resilience strategies tailored to conflict-rich environments. This integration supports BCPS’s pipeline development and “Grow Your Own Staff” initiatives by ensuring educators remain effective and resilient.

5.5 Engage. Empower. Excel.

We will actively involve participants in skill-building through interactive workshops, simulation labs, and scenario-based roundtables. We will provide practical tools that empower leaders to resolve conflict, uphold accountability, and regulate stress.
