

Professional Mediations LLC
From Conflict to Common Ground

MEDIATION AGREEMENT

Parties

This Agreement is entered into by:

- Party A: Allison Galbraith
- Party B: Pat Larrimore, Esq.
- Mediator: Christian Piatt, Esq., Professional Mediations LLC

Purpose

The parties agree to participate in mediation to resolve their dispute in a voluntary, confidential, and respectful manner. The mediator will facilitate communication and negotiation but will not make decisions or provide legal advice.

Confidentiality

- All discussions during mediation are confidential and will not be disclosed outside the process.
- Exceptions: Disclosure is required if there is evidence of child abuse, elder abuse, or threats of serious harm.
- Notes taken by the mediator are for internal use only and will not be shared.
- Any written agreement reached may be shared outside mediation only with the consent of all parties.

Voluntary Participation

- Mediation is voluntary. Either party may end the session at any time.
- The mediator may also conclude the session if it is no longer productive or safe.

Neutrality of Mediator

- The mediator is a neutral facilitator and does not represent either party.
- The mediator will not provide legal advice, interpret laws, or predict court outcomes.
- The mediator's role is to support communication, help identify issues, and assist in generating mutually acceptable solutions.

Caucus (Private Meetings)

- At any time, either party or the mediator may request a private caucus.
- Information shared in caucus will remain confidential unless the party authorizes disclosure.

Good Faith Commitment

- The parties agree to participate in good faith, listen respectfully, and refrain from personal insults.
- Each party will have an opportunity to speak without interruption.

Costs

- Mediation fees are $600 per session, up to three hours.
- Costs will be shared equally unless otherwise agreed.

Agreement Outcome

- If the parties reach a resolution, it will be documented in a Mediated Settlement Agreement (MSA).
- The MSA may be legally binding if the parties choose and may be reviewed by independent legal counsel.

Signatures

By signing below, the parties acknowledge that they understand and agree to the terms of this Agreement to Mediate.

Party A: _____ Date: _____

Party B: _____ Date: _____

Mediator: Christian Piatt

Date: November 26, 2025