

STUDY GUIDE

LESSON 9:

PURPOSE OF THIS LESSON:

PROFESSIONAL BUSINESS MEDIATION SKILLS

The purpose of this lesson is to cover mediation as a business skill, as a method for maintaining organizational interactions, and as a method for handling the issues that arise in the workplace or in business relationships.

OBJECTIVES:

After completing this lesson, you should be able to:

1. Apply practical skills, strategies and techniques necessary for effective business mediation practice.
2. Identify typical workplace mediations for employees, managers, teams, and directors.
3. Identify key reasons that conflicts arise in the workplace.
4. Employ innovative conflict resolution skills for diffusing anger or aggression in an expeditious manner.

READING ASSIGNMENT:

Read and study the Reading Assignment that follows.

MEASURE YOUR PROGRESS:

Complete these exercises as indicated to determine how well you have understood the Reading Assignment.

LESSON TEST:

This test will show how well you have understood the reading assignment.

VOCABULARY QUIZ:

After completing the Lesson Test, follow the directions on the vocabulary quiz to build your vocabulary with the following words:

Workplace Mediation

Prejudice

Business Mediation

Discrimination

Norming

Empowerment

Storming

Sub-personalities

PRACTICE SKILLS:

Complete the practical project at the end of Lesson 9 then upload to the student portal at

<https://nacm.activemoodle.com/>

